Dear Client

RE: COVID-19

The Honourable State President Ramaphosa has last night announced a national lockdown for 21 days with effect from midnight, Thursday, 26 March 2020. These are drastic steps in the fight to contain the effects of COVID-19. The lockdown will indeed impact all business operations.

As a firm we have been planning for this eventuality and thus have enhanced our information technology capability to better manage increased volume of remote work.

Your engagement director will be in contact with you to make necessary arrangements to continue to serve you remotely, but please do not hesitate to contact us for advice regarding this extraordinarily challenging business environment. We are able to provide insights from our highly skilled teams as well as those of our offices around the world.

We wish you all the best in managing the challenges going forward and believe that working together we will overcome the situation

Kind Regards

Victor Sekese
